

I am a Republican, but I am strongly opposed to relaxing FCC rules on broadcast ownership. We need a variety of voices in the media. Relaxing the rules will most certainly lead to media consolidation, with fewer voices, less competition, and a decreased chance that the truth will emerge on any given issue.